

No. 1

COMMERCIAL DIVISION

---

If you buy or sell commercial properties, you have a powerful ally in our Commercial Division: It was ranked No. 1 in 2016 sales production out of the vast national network of commercial affiliates operating under the Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices umbrella.

Commercial real estate transactions involve more than simply finding a suitable property and negotiating the right price and terms. Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices California Properties' Commercial Division offers comprehensive market evaluations for all types of commercial properties, as well as advanced demographic data to support your interests and long-term goals.

Because commercial real estate is highly competitive and complex, our company has consistently invested in refining and expanding our Commercial Division. In addition, a suite of systems has been established to enhance your experience at every level. These factors have been essential to the success of our agents and our company. We are committed to helping you achieve your commercial real estate goals.

